Mr. Nameless Mr. Nameless is an album by the jazz saxophonist Charles Lloyd recorded in 1958 and released on the Prestige label. Reception The Allmusic site awarded the album 4½ stars stating "This very well-recorded 1959 release from Charles Lloyd features three saxophone players making percussive sounds and several reed players playing their wind instruments with gusto. Charley finds that he cannot play in a one-note fashion, but instead has to play all over, giving full attention to the resonant qualities of his instrument. This excellent group effort on Mr. Nameless will not be found anywhere but Prestige".
